Heavy Fire Fails to Stop McCarthy

By JAMES MARLOW WASHINGON (#) - In the past 0 days Sen. McCarthy has been under the most intense cross-fire of his eight Senate years. Anoth er man might have been shaken, shocked or stopped. Not McCar

He's still fighting. As events pile up ti seems his political life may be at stake. Here are main events of the 10 days.

March 2. Leonard Hall, chairman of the Republican National Committee, visits President Eisenhower, comes out saying he can't go along with the Wisconsin Republican senator when he attacks those fighting communism just as 'conscientiously as he is.'' A few weeks before Hall called McCarthy a party asset.

March 3. Eisenhower, at a news conference, midly critizes Mc-Carthy for his handling of witnesses. McCarthy replies in effect he'll handle witnesses as he sees

March 4. Secretary of Defense Wilson says "just damn tommyrot" to charges that the Army cod dles Communists.

March 4. The White House says hyndreds of telegrams pour in after news conference, run 9 to 1 in the President's favor. McCarthy says letters and telegrams to him run 95 per cent in his favor.

March 4 Republican members of McCarthy's committee dress down Roy Cohn, committee counsel, for allegedly intervening with Army for special treatment for G. David Schine. Schine was Cohn's associate on committee until drafted. The committee's Democratic members ask the Army for a report

March 5. McCarthy quietly withdraws a two-million-dollar libel suit against former Sen. Benton (D-Conn), who said McCarthy was unfit to sit in Senate. McCarthy says his lawyers could find no one willing to testify he believed Benton.

March 5. John F. Kane, special assistant to Secretary of the Army Robert T. Stevens, resigns, saying his chief has not had "fighting support" in struggle with Mc-Garthy. McCarthy-Stevens feud, begun when Stevens said McCar-thy "abused" a general, has set 10 days' events in motion. March 5, McCarthy flies from

New York to Miami to consult, he says, with his investigators. March 6. Also in Miami Adlai Stevenson, on a nationwide radiotelevision hookup, attacks, McCarthy and Eisenhower for not being

Double-Decker---

The next time you buy beds for the children, remember that little girls love double-deck bunk beds. The one shown above is equipped with a removable ladder for climbing to the top bunk and a sideboard to prevent falling. Nile green plisse, with cotton lace trim, makes easily washable curtains and bedspreads that require little ironing.
